Announcement No. 4, 2010

Monberg & Thorsen raises profit outlook for 2009

Monberg & Thorsen now expects operating profit before special items in the DKK 100 million region compared with operating profit in the DKK 50 million region as announced most recently in the interim financial report for the third quarter on 24.11.09.

As will be seen from the enclosed press release from MT Højgaard, they now expect revenue of DKK 9.1 billion and profit before tax of just over DKK 300 million, corresponding to a pre-tax margin of 3.4%.

In Dyrup, operating profit is also expected to be slightly ahead of the earlier outlook.

According to plans, the 2009 annual report will be published on 24 March 2010. The annual report will include the outlook for 2010.

Yours faithfully
Monberg & Thorsen A/S

Press release

5 March 2010

2009 was a good year for MT Højgaard

MT Højgaard delivered revenue of DKK 9.1 billion and profit before tax of just over DKK 300 million in 2009. This corresponds to a pre-tax margin of 3.4% compared with 3.2% in 2008.

The outlook in our latest interim financial report was revenue of approx. DKK 9 billion and a pre-tax margin of approx. 3%.

The improved financial performance reflected, in particular, the fact that several large projects developed more positively than expected.

According to plans, the 2009 annual report will be published on 24 March 2010. The annual report will include the outlook for 2010.

The reason for MT Højgaard's profit announcement is today's announcement from Monberg & Thorsen A/S.
