The interest-bearing net deposit has increased by DKK 71 million in 2010, standing at DKK 895 million, primarily due to less funds tied up in working capital.

Outlook for 2010

The development in the past months since the presentation of the 2009 annual report has not changed our overall expectations concerning the level of activity in 2010.

The activities in the markets in Denmark are still facing pressure, and competition is extremely fierce. We expect a slightly lower level of activity than in 2009.

In the international markets, we are focusing on selective identification of project opportunities that match our capabilities and resources. We are applying particular attention to the market for foundations for offshore wind farms - an area in which we are among the most experienced in the world. We estimate that the level of activity in 2010 will be slightly higher than in 2009.

Based on our order book and the market outlook at the start of the second quarter, we still expect revenue to be approx. DKK 9 billion.

Given the current economic climate, we do not expect to be able to achieve the same satisfactory pre-tax margin in 2010 as in 2009. The full-year pre-tax margin for 2010 is still expected to be in the region of 2% to 3%.

The Group's effective tax rate is expected to be at a slightly higher level than the Danish corporate income tax rate.

By their nature, these expectations concerning the future financial performance are subject to uncertainties and risks that may cause the performance to differ from the expectations expressed in this report. For a description of risks and uncertainties, reference is made to the section "Risk factors” in the 2009 annual report. The significant risks and uncertainties are consistent with those described in the annual report.
